Plans Underway for 10th Annual Clinch River Antiques Festival

The 10th Annual Clinch River Antiques Festival will be held on October 8th and 9th, 2010, in Historic Downtown Clinton, Tennessee. The Festival begins with a kick-off party Friday evening, October 8th from 6:00 - 9:00 p.m. in the Hoskins/Lane Park on Market Street. There will be plenty of food and live musical entertainment with the downtown shops open late for the event. There are over 100 antique dealers located in shops in and around the Historic Downtown District.

On Saturday, October 9th, the RAIN or SHINE event is scheduled from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Market Street will be closed to traffic as antiques dealers and artisans line the street for the Antiques Festival. The festival will accommodate over 75 exhibitors from all over East Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia, as well as other surrounding states.

This year's festival will feature:

- Joe Rosson, Antiques Road Show antique appraiser will be available to appraise your personal treasures on Saturday, excluding weapons and new collectibles.
- Re-enactment of the famous Aaron Burr – Alexander Hamilton Duel
- Beautiful cars from the Clinton Regional AACA Antique Car Club
- Live entertainment
- Children's activities sponsored by First Baptist Church
- A wide variety of food for the family

"The festival continues to grow beyond our expectations. We expect over 8,000 for this year's event", said Chamber President Jackie Nichols. The festival is presented by the Anderson County Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the City of Clinton. Sponsors for this year's festival are Regions Bank, Mercy Health Partners and Methodist Medical Center. For additional information call the Chamber at 865-457-2559.
